Judging rubrics

Learn and Earn Entrepreneurship Day 2026

BIT 21603 Technopreneurship final assessment and the LEED 26 competition in one place. Judges score each team once on these rubrics; the same levels give the course marks and the award rankings.

Event
9 & 10 December 2026, FSKTM Parking Lot

Course
BIT 21603 · Semester I 2026/2027

Version
14 November 2026

How marks work

Pick a level

Each criterion is scored from Level 5 (best) to Level 0 (nothing to judge). Read across the row and pick the description that fits best.

Level to marks

Marks = level × criterion marks ÷ 5.

Worth	5	4	3	2	1	0
5 marks	5	4	3	2	1	0
4 marks	4	3.2	2.4	1.6	0.8	0
3 marks	3	2.4	1.8	1.2	0.6	0
2 marks	2	1.6	1.2	0.8	0.4	0

Several judges

A team's result is the average of its judges, so it gains or loses nothing from how many judges reached it.

Ties

Equal totals share the same place. Results are published by the committee at the closing ceremony.

Stall sheet (Component B) + visitors · Jury only (Components C and D) · Counted, no rubric

One stall sheet, two uses

Element	Course (Component B)	Competition (jury)	Visitors are asked (1 to 5 stars)
Product	4	5	How good is what they sell?
Price	5	5	Is the price fair for what you get?
Place	4	5	Is the stall clean and inviting?
Promotion	5	5	How well do they promote and draw you in?
Customer Service	4	5	How friendly and helpful were they?
SSM Registration	3	—	Lecturer checks the SSM certificate in the report
Total	25	25 jury	Visitors add the same marks again for the stall awards

Award rules

Stall awards. Jury part = the judges' average for the element. Visitor part = visitors' average stars ÷ 5 × the same marks. Award = jury + visitors.

Videos. Up to 3 per group; judges give one set of marks covering all of them. Links are submitted in the LEED 26 system.

Most Popular & Viral Video. The committee records likes and shares at an agreed cut-off time, with screenshots. Bought likes, views or automated engagement remove the group from this award.

People Choice. Visitors sign in with UTHM and tap "I like it" or "Not for me" once per stall; they can change their mind. Most likes wins.

B Practical Business Implementation

Live selling over Weeks 6 to 13 online and at the LEED 26 booth. Judged at the stall on 9 December; SSM is checked by the lecturer from the report.
