Inside this manual

How to judge at LEED 26: signing in with your UTHM staff account, picking an award and a stall, scoring each criterion, saving, and using the map to plan your walk. Screens are from the phone version unless they say otherwise; the computer version has the same parts, laid out wider.

1 Getting started
Open leed.seladevs.my, sign in with UTHM, find your way around, notifications and your profile.

2 Juries
Pick an award and a stall, tap a level for each criterion, save, and plan your walk on the map.

3 Help and quick answers
Common questions and what to do when something does not work.

For everyone

Getting started

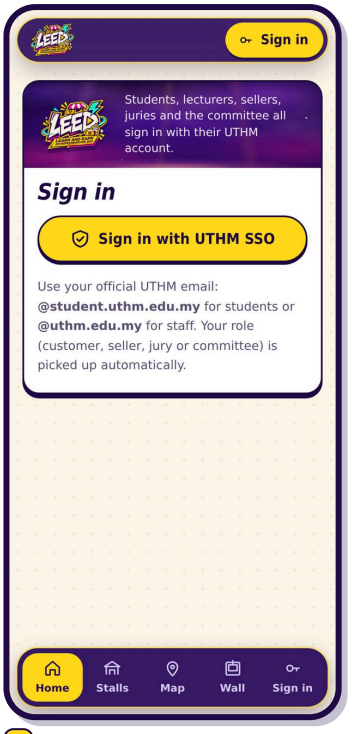

One website for the whole carnival. It works in any phone or computer browser; there is nothing to install.

1	2	3	4
Open the site leed.seladevs.my	Sign in with UTHM Your UTHM Google account	Your role is set Visitor, stall team, jury or committee	Use the tabs Home, Stalls, Map, Wall and your own tab

1. Go to leed.seladevs.my.
   Type it into any phone or computer browser. On a phone, choose “Add to Home screen” in your browser menu so it opens like an app.
2. Tap Sign in, then “Sign in with UTHM SSO”.
   Choose your UTHM Google account. Students use @student.uthm.edu.my; lecturers and staff use @uthm.edu.my. Personal Gmail accounts are refused.
3. Your role is picked up automatically.
   Everyone starts as a visitor. If your UTHM email is on a stall team you get My stall; if the committee added you as a jury you get Judging; committee members get Admin.
4. You only need to sign in once.
   The site remembers you on that device until you sign out from your profile.

Good to know

You can browse stalls, the map, the memory wall and results without signing in. You only need to sign in to like or rate a stall, run a stall or judge.

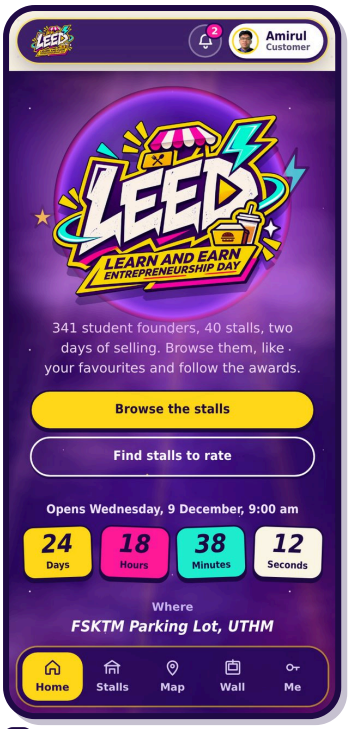

1 Sign in with your UTHM account

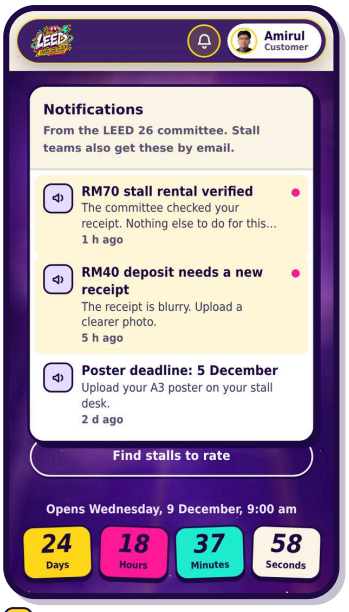

2 Home page before signing in

Finding your way around

3 Signed in: your name and role sit top right

4 The bell opens your notifications

5 Bottom tab bar (phone).
Home, Stalls, Map and Wall are always there. The last tab changes with your role: Sign in, Me, My stall, Judging or Admin.

6 Top bar.
On a computer the same links run across the top, with Results. Your photo and role are on the right; tap it for your profile.

7 The bell.
A number on the bell means new notifications from the committee, such as a payment being checked or a new announcement. Tap a notification to jump to the right place. Opening the list marks them as read.

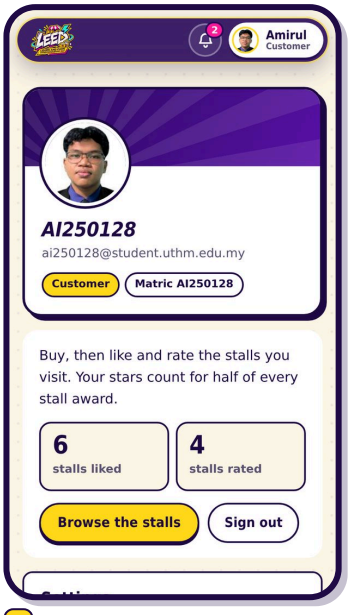

8 Email too.
Stall teams also get the important notifications by email: the team leader in To, groupmates in CC.

9 Your profile (Me).
Shows your name, UTHM email, matric or staff number and role, plus a summary of what you have done: stalls liked and rated, score sheets saved, or your stall.

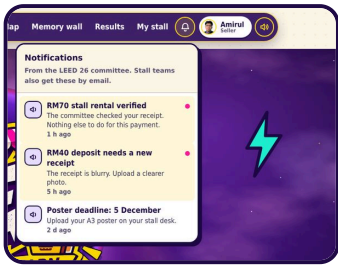

10 Settings.
Turn the click sounds on or off.

11 Sign out.
Use Sign out on your profile, especially on a shared computer.

> Tip
> Your name and matric number come from your UTHM account, so forms that need them fill them in for you and lock them.

Juries

Score your allocated stalls and videos on your phone. Stall judging runs on day one, Wednesday 9 December, from 12:00 pm to 5:00 pm.

UTHM staff account	Stall, video or pitch	Grid, list, number or map	For each criterion	Change it until judging closes

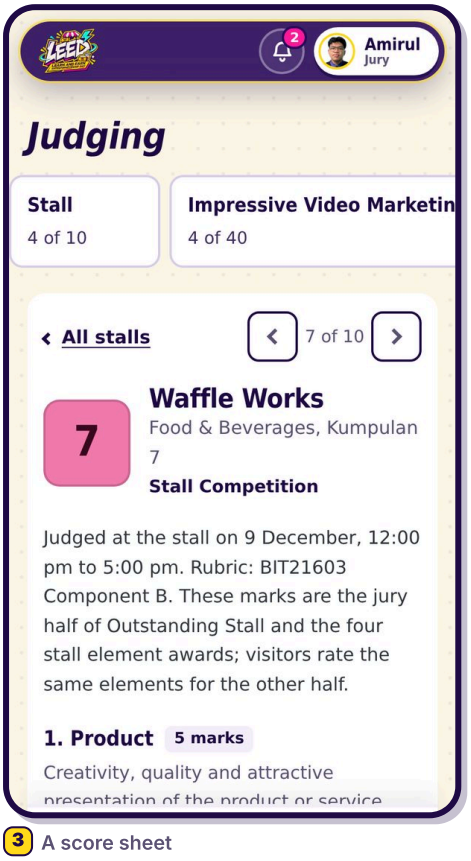

1 Judging: your awards and progress

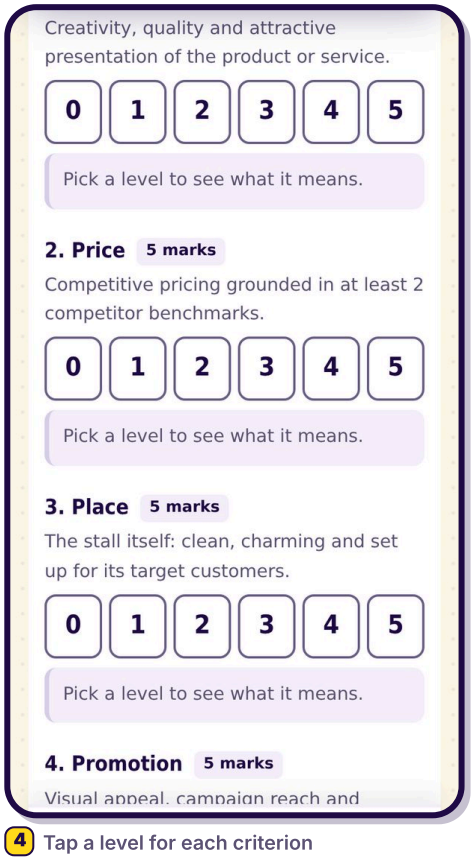

2 Your stalls: green ones are done

1. Sign in with your UTHM staff account.
   The committee adds you as a jury and allocates your stalls before the day. Your last tab becomes Judging.
2. Pick an award.
   The tabs at the top show each award you judge and how many you have scored, for example Stall, 4 of 10.
3. Pick a stall.
   Tap Continue with stall for the next one, type a stall number in Go to stall, or tap a stall in the grid or list. Tick “Only stalls left to score” to hide finished ones.
4. Read the colours.
   Green: scored, with your total. Purple: saved on this phone and waiting for signal. Dashed: a draft not saved yet.

3 A score sheet

4 Tap a level for each criterion

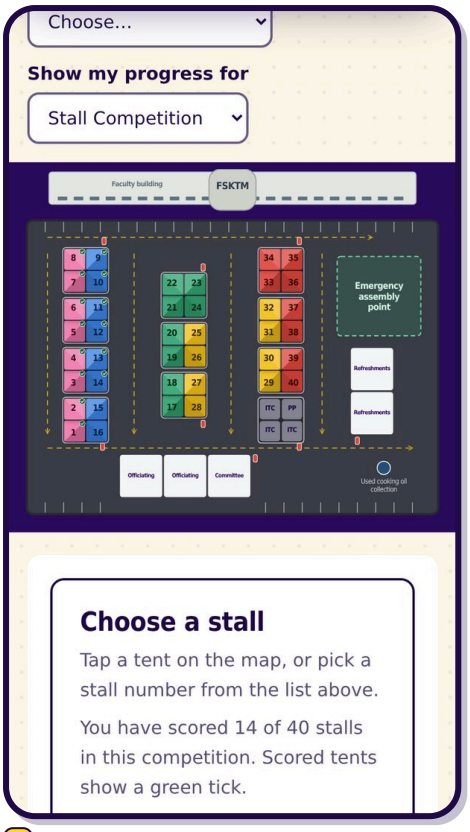

5 Comment and save

5 Check the stall.
The sheet shows the stall, its award and when and how it is judged. Use the arrows to move to the previous or next stall.

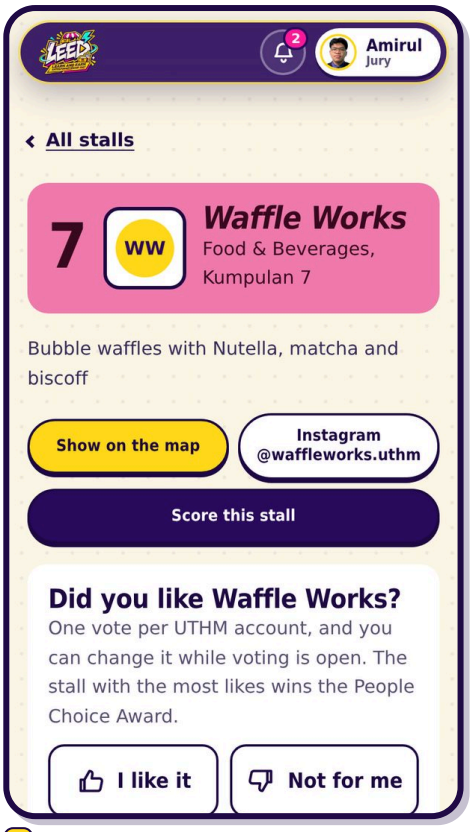

6 Tap a level from 0 to 5 for each criterion.
The rubric wording for that level and the marks it gives appear as you tap. Each criterion shows what it is worth.

7 Add a comment if you like.
Comments go to the committee only.

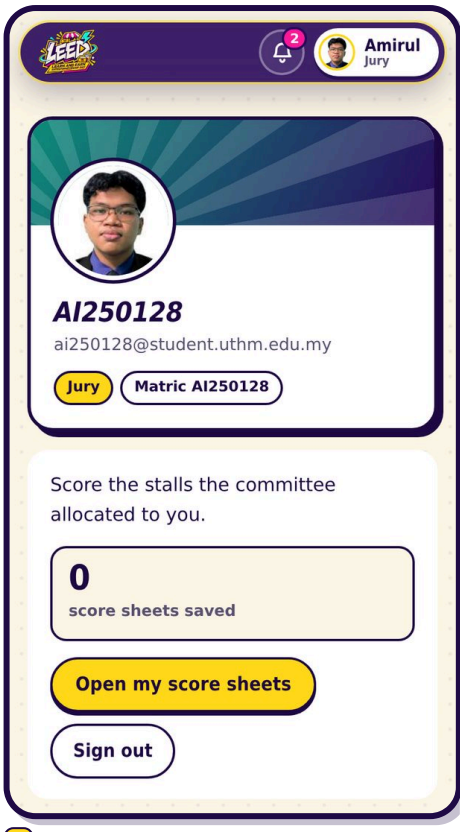

8 Tap Save score.
The total at the bottom shows your marks out of the award total. You can reopen and change a sheet until the committee closes judging.

6 Map with your progress

7 "Score this stall" on a stall page

8 Your profile

9 Use the map.
Under "Show my progress for", pick an award: scored tents show a green tick, so you can plan your walk.

10 Score from a stall page.
Juries see a Score this stall button on every stall page.

11 Videos.
For the video and pitch awards, the links open straight from the score sheet.

Good to know
If the signal drops, keep scoring. Your sheets stay on your phone and are sent when it returns. A stall's result is the average of its judges, so it does not matter how many judges reach it.

Help and quick answers

Most problems are solved by signing in with the right UTHM account. If not, ask the committee table at the event or message @leed.uthm on Instagram.

“Not a UTHM email” when I sign in.
Choose your UTHM Google account (@student.uthm.edu.my or @uthm.edu.my), not a personal Gmail. On a shared device, sign out of other Google accounts first.

I am a judge but there is no Judging tab.
The committee has not added your UTHM staff email as a jury, or you signed in with another account. Ask the Judging Unit at the committee table.

My scores did not send.
They are saved on your phone (purple in the grid) and sent when the signal returns. Keep the page open for a moment once you have signal.

I did not get the email.
Check your UTHM inbox and spam. Every email is also under the bell on the site.

Can I change my answers later?
Likes and stars, while voting is open. Score sheets, until judging closes. Stall details and videos, any time. A payment, by replacing the receipt while it is waiting.
